

Daylily february 17, 2018
9:25 am

We were in the side building today. Bill and Linda have the flu, Tom and Gale could not come, Wanda has the flu, Connie and Milton are in Pennsylvania to see his daughter. If you have not gotten our schedule flyer or business card there are plenty available.

April 21st @ 9:00 am is our non Daylily garden sale, this year John and Ann are hosting. Please bring some potted plants and a dish for brunch. 11308 Hallmark Dr, Matthews.

Next month Paul Owen is coming from "slightly different daylilies"

Today was your last chance to pay dues for this year.

Joyce and Marie provided breakfast for today.

Canned goods or boxed foods for second harvest next month are appreciated, Ann will make a run

You can start bringing things for the national raffle basket next month. Our theme is made in the Carolina's

Last month we agreed to honor previous member Pete Peters by giving a non AHS member a year long subscription to AHS. Bob Olson won the raffle.

Triad Daylily Club in Greensboro is hosting a workshop March 24th to be an exhibition judge. Second class is at national, third class at regional next year, then you're a judge. Their regional is June 2nd if you would like to attend or enter.

Fall regional is October 5th and 6th, we do not know the location yet. Board meeting is March 4th at Terry and Jennifer's @ 3:00

July 7th Saturday Summer trip to Blue Ridge Daylilies in Alexander northwest of Asheville, the board will decide details during their meeting

The program today is by Terry on hybridizing 101